PROVIDENCE

NEW YORK CITY

The University of Connecticut, a land grant institution, recognizes and respects Native peoples as traditional stewards of lands.

ONE COMMUNITY, MANY CULTURES.

Students from different states, countries, and continents choose UConn not just for our rigorous academic programs, but also for our richly diverse and inclusive campus community.

Here, we embrace diversity.
Here, we practice compassion and respect.
Here, we support each other as One UConn.

Here, we're Huskies.

THE POTENTIAL OF A HUSKY

Holistic Review

Your college application is a testament to who you are, all that you have accomplished along the way, and the many interests and passions that drive what's next.

At UConn, no single piece of information determines if a student is a good fit for our community. Selection is based on a comprehensive, holistic review of all the information provided on the application, both academic and personal.

- Rigor
- Performance
- Involvement
- Personal Qualities

Automatic Consideration

All applicants to the University of Connecticut are automatically considered for merit scholarships. There is no separate application. Priority consideration is given to those students who apply by December 1. Scholarship recipients are often identified by academic program performance, class rank, standardized test scores, leadership involvement, and special talents.

The background of the slide features a photograph of a university building with a prominent white clock tower topped with a golden dome. The building is partially obscured by trees with vibrant autumn foliage in shades of yellow, orange, and green. The sky is a clear, light blue. On the left side of the slide, there is a decorative vertical line of red dots.
